AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to eligibility for the empire state film production credit
The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative intent. The Legislature hereby recognizes that providing tax incentive to enhance diversity in the ranks of television writers and directors will also enhance the diversity of stories and casts.

Section 2. Paragraph 1 of subdivision (a) of section 24 of the tax law, as amended by section 3 of part Q of chapter 57 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

- (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer which is a qualified film production company, or a qualified independent film production company, or which is a sole proprietor of or a member of a partnership which is a qualified film production company or a qualified independent film production company, and which is subject to tax under articles nine-A or twenty-two of this chapter, shall be allowed a credit against such tax, pursuant to the provisions referenced in subdivision ~~(e)~~ (e) of this section, to be computed as ~~hereinafter~~ provided in this section .

Section 3. Paragraph 2 of subdivision (b) of section 24 of the tax law, as added by section 1 of part P of chapter 60 of the laws of 2004, is amended and two new paragraphs 9 and 10 are added to read as follows:

(2) "Production costs" means any costs for tangible property used and services performed directly and predominantly in the production (including pre-production and post production) of a qualified film. "Production costs" shall not include ~~(i) costs for a story, script or scenario to be used for a qualified film and (ii)~~ wages or salaries or other compensation for writers, directors, including music directors, producers and performers (other than background actors with no scripted lines). Writers' and directors' fees and salaries shall be eligible production costs subject to the provisions of subdivision (c-1) of this section; provided, however, that fees that are based on deferred, leveraged or profit participation costs, or are in excess of those otherwise permitted by subdivision (c-1) of this section shall not be eligible production costs. "Production costs" generally include technical and crew production costs, such as expenditures for film production facilities, or any part thereof, props, makeup, wardrobe, film processing, camera, sound recording, set construction, lighting, shooting, editing and meals.

(9) "Writer" means a writer employed or retained to write or revise scripts, screenplays, teleplays, dialogue, sketches, routines or narrations.

(10) "Director" means the individual employed or retained to direct the production, as the word "direct" is commonly used in the motion picture industry.

Section 4. Section 24 of the tax law is amended by adding two new subdivisions (c-1) and (c-2) to read as follows:

(c-1) For a television production, writers' and directors' fees and salaries shall be eligible costs; provided, however, such costs shall not exceed: (i) for each writer or director who receives an on-air credit, fifty thousand dollars in fees or salary per episode; and (ii) for each non-credited writer or director, seventy-five thousand dollars per series of episodes and provided that such writer or director is a minority group member, as defined by subdivision eight of section three hundred ten of the executive law, or a woman.

Provided, further, that, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a writer's or director's fees and salary shall be eligible for the maximum amount of the credit granted by this subdivision, only if such writer or director is a resident of this state.

(c-2) For each tax year, not more than five million dollars in tax credits for writers' and directors' fees and salaries shall be granted pursuant to this section. Such credits shall only be available from credits allowed for production costs pursuant to this section.

Section 5. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law and shall apply to the tax year in which it takes effect and all subsequent tax years.
